

SONG OF SPRING

Arthur Pearson (1866–1936)

126

Come ye where gold of May is shin-ing, Come ye where buds of flow'r's are twin-ing; As to the bells of fair-ies chim-ing, Trip we thro' bow'r's of ra-diant Spring. Glad-some the morn-ing, The land is gay, O-ver the mead-ows trip (trip) a - O'er the way; Echoes the brooklet by wood and lea: "Sing, sing, O heart, be glad with me!"
Come ye where gold of May is shin-ing, Come ye where buds of flow'r's are twin-ing,

41

As to the bells of fairies chim-ing, Trip we thro' bow'r's of ra-diant Spring.
