

THE HEART BOWED DOWN

Michael William Balfe (1808–1870)

1. The heart bowed down by weight of woe, To weakest hopes will cling, To thought and impulse
 2. The mind will in its worst despair Still ponder o'er the past, On moments of dewhile they flow, That can no com - fort bring, that can, that can no com - fort bring; To light that were Too beau-ti - ful to last, that were too beau-ti - ful to last; To those ex - cit - ing scenes will blend, O'er plea - sure's path - way thrown; But mem - ry is the long de - part - ed years ex - tend, Its vis - ions with them flown; For mem - ry is the

on - ly friend That grief can call its own, That grief can call its own, That grief can call its own.
 on - ly friend That grief can call its own, That grief can call its own, That grief can call its own.
