

WHERE THERE'S A WILL THERE'S A WAY

Charles Edward Pollock

1. Though trou - bles per - plex you, Dis - heart - en and vex you, Re - tard - ing your
 2. The task may be teas - ing, The du - ty un - pleas - ing, But he who con -
 3. Mis - for - tunes un - count - ed Are of - ten sur - mount - ed, If on - ly we pro - gress in som - ber ar - ray; To shrink from with ter - ror Is fronts it will soon win the day; The fight is half o - ver When quit not the field in dis - may; Then one more en - deav - or, Re - sure - ly an er - ror, For where there's a will there is al - ways a way.

 once we dis - cov - er That where there's a will there is al - ways a way. mem - ber - ing ev - er, That where there's a will there is al - ways a way.

There's a way, there's a way, Wher - ev - er there's a will there's a There's a way, there's a way, way, There's a way, there's a way, Wher - ev - er there's a will there's a way.

 there's a way, There's a way, there's a way,